All common shares and per share amounts included in this management discussion and analysis and in the Company's Audited Financial Statements for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 have been restated to give retroactive effect to the 35:1 share consolidation described on page 1 of this document and in notes 3 and 15 to the Audited Financial Statements for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003.

For the twelve month period ended December 31, 2004, the Company has recorded Revenue of $292,372 generated from the Company's investment in the three card games Software. The increase in the Company's revenues is due to an increase in the usage of the three card games Software. The Net Loss was increased as a result of increased operating expenses mainly due to stock option compensation expenses, increase in management fees, commission fees and the write down of the Company's investment in the Inter-Café Project. As a result, the basic Net Loss per common share on a fully diluted and non-diluted basis was $0.82. Total Assets are comprised of cash and term deposits, marketable securities, receivable from related parties, cash held on behalf of a related party, the Mineral Property and furniture and equipment. In respect to the Company's long term financial the Extra High Property and all of which now form part of the Extra High Property. Furthermore, the Company incurred exploration related expenditures of $16,932 in respect to the Extra High Property.

During 2004, and pursuant to the Agreement with Interfranchise Inc., the Company invested an additional $65,000 and completed its acquisition of a 10% interest in the Inter-Café Project for a total investment by the Company amounting to $90,000. As at December 31, 2004, the Company wrote-off this investment since recovery on the investment became doubtful.

During the three month [fourth quarter] period ended December 31, 2004, the Company had a net (loss) of (101,443) ($0.30 per share) as compared to a net (loss) of ($20,211) ($0.00 per share) in the same three month [fourth quarter] period of 2003. Operating costs have increased as compared to the same period in the previous year. Costs relating to salaries and benefits, legal, accounting and audit fees, commission fees and regulatory and transfer fees contributed mainly to the increase in operating costs.

The Company's fourth quarter revenue for the three month period ended December 31, 2004 was $212,446 (2003: $38,346) as a result of increased revenue generated from the Company's investment in the three card games Software.

Risks related to our Investments

The Company entered into an Investment Agreement on January 26, 2004, with Interfranchise Inc., whereby the Company purchased a 10% interest in the Inter-Café Project for $90,000. The Inter-Café Project is still in its conceptual stage and has not yet been developed. There are no assurances whatsoever that the Inter-Café Project will ever be developed or if developed, shall prove to be successful. As a result, the Company has written off, in its entirety, the Company's investment in the Inter-Café Project.

During 2004, Bronx has invested by purchasing a total of 4,000,000 common shares of Las Vegas From Home.com Entertainment Inc., ("Las Vegas") a related company, for the total sum of $1,225,000 (the "Las Vegas Shares"). Bronx is exposed to significant market risk with respect to the Las Vegas Shares. There are no assurances whatsoever that the Company will recover its investment in the Las Vegas Shares. Of the 4,000,000 Las Vegas Shares acquired during 2004, the Company has sold 2,357,500 during the year ended December 31, 2004, for total proceeds to the Company of $303,230. As of December 31, 2004, the Company holds 1,642,500 Las Vegas Shares.

As of January 7, 2005, the Company has acquired for investment purposes, 1,250,000 units of Las Vegas, a related company, at a price of $0.20 per unit. Each Las Vegas unit consists of one Las Vegas common share and one-half of one warrant. One whole warrant is required to purchase one Las Vegas common share at $0.25 per common share for a period of 24 months. The 1,250,000 Las Vegas units, which have a hold period expiring on May 8, 2005, have been issued to the Company. The Company may either increase or decrease its investment in Las Vegas in the future. Bronx is exposed to significant market risk with respect to the Las Vegas units. There are no assurances whatsoever that the Company will recover its investment in the Las Vegas units.

On November 4, 2002, the Company entered into a Licensing Agreement with Las Vegas from Home.com Entertainment Inc. ("Las Vegas"), a related company, for the joint development of certain gaming software consisting of three card games (the "three card games Software"). Pursuant to this Licensing Agreement, the Company has paid a one time only license fee of $200,000 to Las Vegas as the Company's sole contribution for the development costs of the three card games Software, as a result of which, the three card games Software is now equally owned by Las Vegas and the Company. Las Vegas shall be the operator of the three card games Software and shall market the three card games. Las Vegas shall receive 60% of all revenues that shall be generated from the operation of the three card games Software and the Company shall receive 40%. The Company's share of revenues from the three card games Software was $292,372 for the twelve month period ended December 31, 2004 (2003: $100,951). To date, the three card games Software has generated some revenues for the Company, however, there are no assurances whatsoever that the three card games Software shall continue to generate any revenues for the Company in the future. It is quite possible that the three card games Software may stop generating any revenues for the Company, and the Company may have to write-off, in its entirety, the Company's investment in the three card games Software.

On March 26, 2004, Bronx entered into an Option Agreement with an arm's length party (the "Optionor") to acquire, under certain terms and conditions, a 100% undivided interest, subject to a 1½% Net Smelter Returns Royalty, in the Extra High Property, which is located in the Province of British Columbia. Pursuant to the Option Agreement, Bronx is required to make staged cash payments to the Optionor totaling $150,000 of which $45,000 has already been paid and, must incur exploration expenditures on the Extra High Property totaling $500,000 over a period of 3 years, of which $16,932 has already been incurred. Upon acquiring the 100% undivided interest, Bronx may purchase 50% of the Net Smelter Returns Royalty (i.e, 0.75%) by making a cash payment of $500,000 to the Optionor. Exploration for natural resources involves many risks, which even a combination of experience, knowledge and careful evaluation may not be able to overcome. It is quite possible that Bronx might lose all its investment in the Extra High Property and may have to write-off, in its entirety, the Company's investment in the Extra High Property.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company has limited earnings which are not sufficient to cover the Company's total expenditures. During 2005, the Company shall require at least $400,000 so as to conduct its operations uninterrupted. In order to meet this requirement, the Company intends to seek equity and/or debt financings through private placements and/or public offerings and/or loans. In the past, the Company has been successful in securing equity and debt financings in order to conduct its operations uninterrupted. While the Company does not give any assurances whatsoever that in the future it will continue being successful in securing equity and/or debt financings in order to conduct its operations uninterrupted, it is the Company's intention to pursue these methods for future funding of the Company.

During 2005, the Company shall, on a best efforts basis, attempt to secure mineral exploration funds in order to conduct exploration work programs on the Extra High Property. Due to reasons beyond Bronx's control including, but not limited to, fluctuating metal prices and adverse financial market conditions, it is quite possible that Bronx may not be able to raise the required funding for its proposed exploration work programs and may possibly have to abandon and write-off its entire investment in the Extra High Property.

Trends

The Marketplace for the on-line three card games Software, which the Company has an interest in, is constantly undergoing changes. The operation of the Company's on-line three card games Software, in which the Company has an interest, will rely on the Internet as a means of promoting and selling the three card games. The Internet continues to change and evolve in both its systems and its accepted methods of marketing. The online gaming industry is intensely competitive in all of its respective phases and furthermore it is subject to changes in customer preferences. Changes in international Governmental regulations and laws could adversely affect the online gaming industry.

In respect to the Company's Lithium and Extra High Properties, the exploration of mineral properties involves significant risks which even experience, knowledge and careful evaluation may not be able to avoid. The price of metals has fluctuated widely, particularly in recent years as it is affected by numerous factors which are beyond the Company's control including international, economic and political trends, expectations of inflation, currency exchange fluctuations, interest rates, global or regional consumptive patterns, speculative activities and increased production due to new extraction methods. The effect of these factors on the price of metals, and therefore the economic viability of the Company's mineral exploration properties cannot be accurately predicted. Furthermore, changing conditions in the financial markets, and Canadian Income Tax legislation may have a direct impact on the Company's ability to raise funds for its mineral exploration properties. A drop in the availability of equity financings will likely impede spending on mineral properties.

Changes in Accounting Policies

Effective January 2004, the Company adopted the new requirements of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants ("CICA") Handbook Section 3870, which requires an expense to be recognized in the financial statements for all forms of employee stock based compensation, including stock options. Previously, the Company did not record any compensation cost on the granting of stock options to employees and directors, as the exercise price was equal to or greater than the market price at the date of the grants. Options granted are accounted for using the fair value method where compensation expense is calculated using the Black-Scholes options pricing model.

As a result of this change in accounting policy, the opening deficit was restated on a retroactive basis to show the effect of compensation expense associated with stock options granted to employees and directors from January 1, 2003 to December 31, 2003, which amounted to $64,122 and an increase of $64,122 to contributed surplus.

Financial Instruments and other instruments

The fair values of cash and term deposits, amounts receivable from related parties, accounts payable and accruals and amounts payable to related parties are assumed to approximate their carrying amounts because of their short term to maturity. The Company is not exposed to significant interest rate risk due to the short-term maturity of its monetary assets and liabilities. The Company is not exposed to significant credit risks with respect to its cash and cash held on behalf of related party because the funds are held in a recognized financial institution.

Marketable securities are valued at the lower of cost and market at the balance sheet date. The Company is exposed to significant market risk with respect to marketable securities from adverse fluctuations in their market value and in the event the marketable securities are de-listed from public trading.
